

A diverse press is the key to a viable democracy. The consolidation of print, TV, cable and radio into a few hands poses a horrible danger to the nation. The existing regulations are feeble as it is. Do not weaken them any further.